Description of Change: Ohmite is discontinuing our entire line of EMI filters.

Reason for Change: Due to dramatically rising transportation costs, Ohmite's EMI filters were no longer priced competitively for the market. Instead of implementing a massive price hike for our customers, Ohmite has decided to discontinue all series of our EMI Filters. Ohmite remains a trusted manufacturer of both standard and custom wirewound, thick film, and ceramic resistors as well as heatsinks and load banks. But we will no longer have EMI filters as part of our considerable portfolio of customer solutions.
